GRAPHIC IMPACT

Designers are breaking with tradition and playing all the angles this fall. Infuse new energy into your own rooms at home by employing their revved-up patterns and expressive shapes. Case in point: The Jolie Tibetan knotted rug from Perennials, made from 100 percent solution-dyed acrylic, emits an off-kilter, artful vibe. From $95 per sq. ft., at David Sutherland, 979 Third Ave., Ste. 401 (D&D), NYC, 212-871-9717, perennialsandsutherland.com.

1 OFF THE WALL

Chicago-based artist Eric Gushee makes magic with metal, creating stunning artworks from woven steel. $19,550 (as shown, 84" diam.), at Michael Del Piero Good Design Hamptons, 372 Montauk Hwy, Wainscott, 631-464-7310, hamptongooddesign.com.

2 FUNKY FIXTURE

Luca Nichetto's Legato Linear chandelier shines dynamic light through a playful zigzag of sleek alternating cones. $12,250, at Matter, 405 Broome St, NYC, 212-343-2600, mattermade.us.

3 HIGHLY ILLUMINATING

Set deliciously askew in neat little rows, a jumble of monochrome blocks makes Élitis's new Illumination wall covering an inspiration to behold. Available in three colorways (shown: Obviously). $25 per yd, 979 Third Ave, Ste. 611 (D&D), NYC, 917-472-7482, elitis.fr.

4 DRAWING THE LINE

Black (or white) enamel guilloché detailing on the Bond Union Series pieces from Studio Gachot and Waterworks has a certain je ne sais quoi. $1,250 for a single-lever spout (as shown), 215 E. 58th St, NYC, 212-371-9266, waterworks.com.

5 DAMN, THE TORPEDO!

San Antonio-based artist Sunshine Thacker's new Torpedo 4.0 lamp features stacked matte and glossy basalt clay pieces supporting a creamy porcelain shade. $5,650, at Frampton & Co, 141 Maple Ln, Bridgehampton, and 9 E. 19th St, NYC, 212-448-1091, framptonco.com.

6 A PINCH WILL DO

The artist's hand is truly visible in Stephen Antonson's Pinch collection of brass knobs and handles created for Nest Studio. From $75 each in various finishes, at Katonab Architectural Hardware, 135 E. 55th St, 7th fl, NYC, 212-813-9680, katonabbardware.com.

BLUES CLUES

1 BASKET CASE

The 100 percent abaca Sans Souci rug from Patterson Flynn Martin comprises an eye-catching weave of natural, blue, and avocado-green fibers. $90 per sq. ft., 979 Third Ave., Ste. 632 (D&D), NYC, 212-688-7700, pattersonflynnmartin.com.

2 SEDUCTIVE SEAT

McKinnon and Harris's weather-resistant aluminum and faux-rush Chesapeake chair packs a tropics-flavored punch both indoors and out. $4,090, 979 Third Ave., Ste. III (D&D), NYC, 212-371-8260, mckinnonbarris.com.

3 PILLOW TALK

Laine + Alliage's 16"-square accent pillow features a mélange of robin's-egg blue and ivory hues printed on silk satin. $250, at ALT for Living, 148 W. 28th St., NYC, 212-431-1000, altforliving.com.

4 STITCH PERFECT

This modern-day cotton quilt pushes the boundaries of America's most treasured folkcraft. $590 (approx. 55" x 63"), at A.P.C., 267 W. 4th St., NYC, 212-755-2523, and 94 N. 3rd St., Williamsburg, 718-989-5704, apc-us.com.

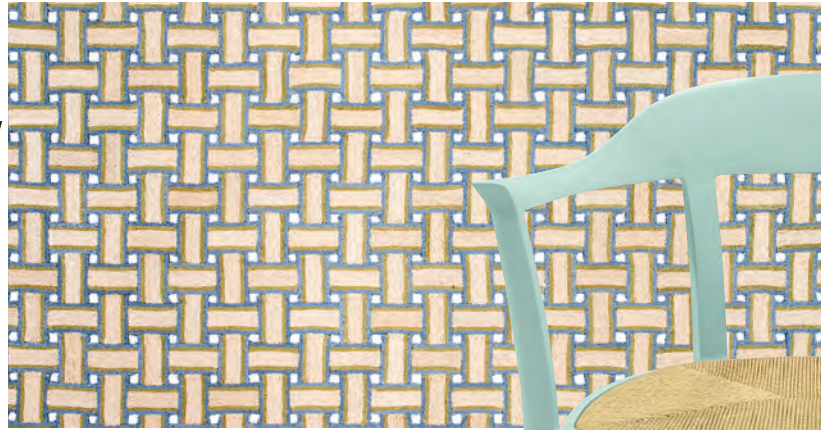

5 EDGY EMBELLISHMENTS

Stephanie Seal Brown's striped fringes and tapes make super-stylish adornments. Available in three colorways (shown: turquoise). From $116 per yd., at Schumacher, 979 Third Ave., Ste. 832 (D&D), NYC, 212-415-3900, fscumacher.com.

6 PLACE YOUR BETS

The secret recipe for this place mat from Von Gern Home? Turquoise and white lacquer swirls that jazz up even the simplest everyday meal. Also available in a variety of other colors. $65 each, at Katie Leede & Co., 23 Washington St., Sag Harbor, 631-899-4973, katieleede.com.
